Master's Message

Greeting Brethren,

I would like to start off with congratulating Ethan Bourque on passing his proficiency test at our last meeting. Your efforts and dedication to your studies was apparent in your performance, and was a pleasure to see. I hope your journey in Freemasonry will be rewarding, as will the craft greatly benefit in you being a member.

I would like to focus much of this notice on our upcoming family Christmas party. It will be held at Jenks lodge on December 22nd at 12pm. Dinner will be served at 1pm, followed by desert. At 2pm, Santa will be joining us, giving gifts to all kids in attendance. Shortly after Santa leaves and the kids are enjoying their new presents, we will have an adult (tasteful) Yankee swap before heading home. The cost of the dinner will be $10 per adult, children eat for free.

I know Mason's are probably the worse at making reservations for events, but your reservation to this particular event is crucial to its success and your child's (children's) happiness. I need everyone to make reservations on how many adults are going, how many children, girl or boy, and age. This will allow the lodge to have enough food, as well as enough gifts for the children. Again, reservations are a must; please contact our lodge secretary by email or phone, before the cut-off date of 12/15/2013. The adult Yankee swap is a separate matter. If you are interesting in taking part in the festivities of the Yankee swap, simply bring a gift (one gift per adult) with you on the 22nd. The gifts should be between $15-$20, and be gift wrapped (it adds to the excitement). Once you turn in your gift, you will draw a number and will be an active participant in the first ever legendary Jenks Lodge Yankee swap.

At our next meeting, we will be having an awards night. One member of the lodge will receive the Abraham M. Shammus Medal, and one member will be awarded the Edgar C. Kay Award. I am holding back on announcing the recipients of these awards, in an attempt to fill the sidelines. Both of these historic Jenks awards are given to members of the lodge after years of dedication, and are not an easy task to obtain. Please come out to lodge to support your brother as they are awarded, and to share in a night a good fellowship and reflection on past years. I hope to see everyone one there and of course if you need a ride to lodge, please let us know.

Upon the Square,

Tom Holton

"Everybody really knows what to do to have his life filled with joy. What is it? Quit hating people; start loving them. Quit being mad at people; start liking them. Quit doing wrong; quit being filled with fear. Quit thinking about yourself and go out and do something for other people. Everybody knows what you have to do to be happy. But the wisdom of the test lies in the final words: If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them."
~ Norman Vincent Peale

"Real joy comes not from ease or riches or from the praise of men, but from doing something worth while."
~ Wilfred T. Grenfell

"The only way on earth to multiply happiness is to divide it."
~ Paul Scherer

"We represent a fraternity which believes in justice and truth and honorable action in your community...men who are endeavoring to be better citizens...[and] to make a great country greater. This is the only institution in the world where we can meet on the level all sorts of people who want to live rightly."
~ Brother Harry S. Truman
President of the United States
