

The Trestle Board

Jenks Lodge #24 Riverside, RI

December 2025

Dear Wardens and Brethren,

What a journey it's been, and this month gives me the perfect setting to express my gratitude for all your dedication, service, and brotherly love this year.

Here is a quick recap since my last message:

Our Special Visitation of Most Worshipful Grand Master Rick Baccus to Jenks Lodge on November 24th, 2025, was another awesome evening with Brother Oscar Alleyne who presented on: "Mark my word! Building a new City". I found the discussion to be engaging and the local ties to our Masonic Jurisdiction fascinating.

Brother Mike Moreno took home the "Golden Spoon" Award at our first ever Chili Cook-Off. It was a great time for all who participated.

Coming up:

December is shaping up to be a memorable month for Jenks Masonic Lodge, filled with both important business and festive cheer! The holiday season is truly upon us, and we have a fantastic lineup of events. We kick things off with our Regular Communication on Monday, December 15, 2025. This will be a special opportunity to see our presumptive Officers Step-Up opening and closing, showcasing the hard work they have been putting in at rehearsals to prepare for next year. Our newest Master Mason, Brother Eric Boyle will also perform his MM Proficiency as we share some fellowship and celebrate some awards Lodge before the major holidays arrive.

Following that, we get right into the Holiday spirit with the wonderful Holy Sepulchre Christmas Observance on Saturday, December 20, 2025. It's a cherished annual tradition, Jenks Lodge is proud to be hosting this year, and it offers a perfect opportunity for us to gather, celebrate, and strengthen the bonds within our wider Lodge family amidst the hustle and bustle of the season.

The energy carries right through the new year! After everyone rings in 2026, we'll be excited to see the brave souls participate in the chilly Penguin Plunge on January 1, 2026! Then, the focus returns to the Lodge with our Annual Communication for Jenks Lodge on Saturday, January 3, 2026.

Something to think about:

It's truly hard to believe that this year is coming to a close! I want to take a moment to express my deepest gratitude to all the Brothers of Jenks Lodge. Your dedication, hard work, and unwavering support have been the cornerstone of this lodge throughout my year as Master. From attending communications to lending a hand with events and community outreach, every one of you has contributed to our success and made my time leading this fantastic lodge an honor and a true pleasure. As this chapter closes, I am incredibly excited for the future of our lodge. I look forward to seeing the energy and fresh ideas the incoming line of officers will bring during their term. Thank you for your commitment to our fraternity, the company while traveling, and laughter along the way while making this a memorable year. I couldn't have done it without you. I am humbled and honored that you chose to entrust me with the governance of our lodge this year. With the setting of my time in the East I am so very glad to have had so much support from a cadre of Past Masters and my Officer line, your advice, guidance and example were bedrock for me.

As one of my oldest and dearest friends once wrote:

"I hope you all have a happy and healthy Holiday Season. May the blessings of heaven rest upon us and all regular Mason, may brotherly love prevail, and every moral and social virtue cement us." (Brother Robert C. Frank)

Yours in the Craft,

Brian K. White, Worshipful Master of Jenks Lodge #2

A MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR WARDEN

Brethren,

My journey through the line has had a profound impact, acting as a steady constant that provided valuable life lessons and support through major personal events like the birth of my children and twins. If I am elected Worshipful Master of Jenks Lodge #24 for 2026, my primary goal is to build strong foundations for our lodge. This includes maintaining our history of exemplary ritual, which W. Bob Frank will oversee as our ritual director. I will also be focusing on improving community outreach and fundraising, tasks that will be spearheaded by the Junior Warden. To foster a stronger Masonic family, I plan to continue the potluck dinner tradition and schedule our 3rd Sunday rehearsals before the potluck, creating a more family-friendly environment. Our Stated Communications will continue according to our Bylaws, with a special Memorial Day communication on May 25th that will include participation in the Riverside parade and a speaker celebrating Jenks' 160-year history.

I've carefully adjusted the officer line to bring in two new, involved Masons, forming what I believe is a strong, deeply connected team. Our degrees are planned for February, June, and October, and I am committed to working toward the Grand Master's Award for the 2026-2027 Masonic Year. To show my commitment, I will be traveling to other lodges and encouraging our officers and members to join me, as I am excited to get out and be with the brethren.

Yours in the craft,
Brother Senior Warden Andrew (AJ) Brockway
